

Chapter 1.

Not Again!!!

Five weeks after merging with the dragonballs, Gohan, Goten, Chi-Chi and the rest of his family have a funeral for him. All of Gokú's friends and family come. Launch came and saw her love, Tien. She went to him after the funeral and asked "Tien, will you take me back?" Tien replies "No, not with what you did the last time I saw you." Launch runs away crying and then bumps into Yamcha. Yamcha asks what's wrong and Launch says, "I love Tien and he won't take me back." "I know the feeling," says Yamcha, "But I know a way for Tien to take you back," Yamcha tells Launch his plan and she starts to gather the dragonballs. First, she goes to Master Roshi and asks him if he has any of the dragonballs. "I do, my dear, just one of them." Says Master Roshi. Master Roshi then gives it to Launch. She leaves and goes back to Yamcha and within a month they have all the dragonballs. Yamcha then notices they have black stars and then calls out the dragon. "I wish for Tien and I will love each other forever." Says Launch. "Your wish is granted," says the dragon and then he leaves and the dragonballs scatter far away. Launch leaves right away and goes to Tien's house and they kiss and make up. Yamcha then leaves and notices something coming at him fast, it's Trunks. "Was there anything different with the dragonballs, I saw the dragon and the sky turn black so I just wanted to make sure you used the right dragonballs?" Says Trunks. "No, they had black stars this time." Yamcha explains. "We have one year to get them back before the Earth explodes!" exclaims Trunks.
