

The Wrath of Garlic: Part 3 Meeting With Chout-zu

It took Tien many weeks to reach the Kame House, when he got there he was relieved to find it untouched, "Tien! Tien!," said a familiar voice it was Chout-zu " I'm so glad to see you, I can't believe my eyes!" "I know Chout-zu," Tien replied "I'm glad to see you too." Tien walked inside to see that Dende and Mr.Popo was inside the Kame House as well "Well if it isn't Tien," said the diligent Master Roshi as he walked from the shadows wearing his black combat suit "I'm glad to see you, but we haven't any time to waste." "Yes,Tien," added Mr. Popo "we've been searching for the Dragon balls, all of us even right now Bulma is out with Ulong right now as we speak." "I see, so what is the big wish?" asked Tien "We have three actually"said Dende "They are to restore the Earth revive it's champions, and to give Chout-zu power over the Dead Zone." "No that won't work"said Tien "What do you mean it won't work ?!"asked Master Roshi after grabbing Tien's shirt "Garlic and his son are imortal they will always come back, we can't stop it," said Tien "We should wish for this, double speed in the Hyperbolic Time chamber, a pouch full of sensu beans, and to make everyone on Earth mortal, the dragon gave them immortality he can take it away." After Tien made his speech Bulma and Ulong came back in joy "We found all seven! We found all seven"Bulma shouted from her hovercraft. The next day Tien, Chout-zu and the gang went out to the beach of the Island "Here we go." said a cheerfull Dende and summons Shenlong, and in the Nemeikian tounge wished the wishes that Tien suggested and it was done. "Everyone now we must leave the island immediately they had to see Shenlong and they'll be sending troops of demons any second."suggested Tien "Not a problem"added Bulma "just follow me." she lead them inside the Kame House and into a room, Bulma went to the computer sitting at a desk typed something, and a huge tube came from the ground and Bulma went in no one followed "Come on we don't have all day!" she shouted angrily then everyone ran in quickly the tube lowered in what seemed to be an underground train, and it was. "We also thought that they would come after we made the wish so Bulma made a subway leading directly to Korin's place"said Master Roshi "Great so we'll be right below Kame's lookout" said Tien "Uh huh"said Bulma as she worked the controls Tien went through the different cars in the subway there was ever room you could think of a living room a, kitchen, a dining room, Bathrooms with a dozen stalls, a planning room, but Tien found what he was looking for, a bedroom, Tien practically fellout on the bed and immediately went to sleep. "That boy is our last hope,"Master Roshi imputed "God bless him"

On another planet, three warriors finally stepped down, and began their own search for the Dragon balls.
