

The Wrath of Garlic: Part 4 Behold the Mighty Tapion

Trunks, Tapion, and Minoshay finally arrived on Nemek. Upon their landing they had a startling discovery "My gosh," Trunks said surprisingly " the planet is covered in large roots and are those pods?!" Trunks pointed at a pod "I think we should keep on" Tapion answered and they did. They traveled for some time until they came upon a huge tree "Hey Bro look!" Minoshay pointed at the tree "Isn't that a fabled Tree of Might?" "I don't know" replied Tapion. They continued forward when a massive energy clipped the side of the vessel "What was that?" asked Trunks he got no answer, he looked out the window and saw Saibamen firing energy at them. Trunks and the gang jumped from the craft as it crashed and began to fight the saibamen. The saibamen put up a fight but were defeated, "Hey Tapion," Trunks said eyeballing Tapion's sword "I still have your old one" Trunks drew the Holy Sword, Tapion smiled "I remember that day," He looked at Minoshay "I thought you were dead then." Pods opened up rapidly and saibamen emerged from each one Tapion and Minoshay drew their sword and the three warriors began to attack slicing saibamen left and right leaving a river of spewed green blood, but still the warriors were overwhelmed. "I don't think I can go on." said Trunks breathing heavily "Just hang in there" replied Tapion, he jumped forward and attacked speedily with his blade, he put the stained sword back in his sheath and baled up his fist, red power orbs came around his fist he put them behind his head and thrust them forward the orbs separated into a thousand tiny orbs seeking out Saibamen and destroying all of them, even more so destroying the root and unopened pods on the root. "Wow Bro you the man!" Minoshay said with delight, then he saw a huge hole that the roots had covered, "That's a big hole" he remarked, and started to walk to it, Minoshay arrived at the hole and bent over to look inside. "Hey we can fit in here" he said to Tapion and Trunks who followed him to the hole, then a Nemek jumped out of the hole "Who are you and what do you want?" He asked angrily "I'm Minoshay this is my brother Tapion, and my friend Trunks." "What do you want!" he said a little more agitated "We want to use the Dragonballs to make a wish, my planet is being attacked by a horrible villain." Trunks said "Look around you think we care?" said the Nemek "We need the wish for ourselves!" "That's enough Tibue!," said an elderly Nemek that came from the hole "Please come inside." and they did.

After a good nights sleep Trunks and the group met with the Eldest Nemek, "So I hear you want to use Nemek's dragonballs to save your planet" "Yes we do." replied Trunks "I'll make you a deal, you get rid of the tree and we'll give you the dragonballs." "Sure" replied Tapion he looked at Trunks I want to borrow the Holy Sword for a second, "Sure Tapion," Trunks answered handing the sacred blade back to its original owner. "Stay here I'll be back" Tapion said as he flew out of the hole.

Tapion flew at high speeds toward the massive tree, on the way he was ambushed by many saibamen. Tapion used his blade to hold them back, he continued on dodging blast after blast until he arrived at the tree, where he was tackled by a huge saibamen, this saibaman looked more like a mix of a Nemek and a saibamen, Tapion uppercutted the beast many feet away and charged with his sword in hand, then another monster came to battle, Tapion and the beast exchanged blows until the other monster returned, they knocked Tapion around like a game of pong finally a bruised up Tapion saw that both beast were aligned one behind another.

The scarlet haired warrior stood with his feet shoulder with apart he balled up a fist on his right hand covered it with his left move to his right with his hands beside his waist, and concentrated a massive energy around him "LION FIST!" he trusted his fist forward putting the other at his left side, a tan energy flew from his fist and formed the shape of a huge lion, and headed toward the tree, totaly anialated it in a huged explosion that coved the whole planet in dust. When it cleared all the roots were gone and tapion found himself on a mat, "You were there for two days,"said Tibue who had watched him in the room "your freinds are waiting outside for you to make the wish. Tapion went outside to see the Dragon. It was time to make a wish.
